

What is it about?

This project management course is designed for delegates requiring a course to adequately prepare them to take the Project Management Institute's PMP® examination based on the PMBOK® Guide (Project Management Body of Knowledge).

The PMP® Certification, which has more than tripled in the last five years, is the industry's foremost credential and is a benchmark for many of the world's largest corporations for the advancement and employment within project management.

What's in it for me?

On completion of the course delegates will be able to:

- ✓ Formal recognition of professional expertise and experience.
- ✓ Enriched knowledge of the skills, tools, and techniques used in effective project management.
